INSTRUCTIONS FOR ABSTRACT SUBMISSION
Please submit abstracts as a PDF document file to pican@uabmc.edu by June 7, 2024 at 11:59 PM CST.

1 Abstracts: Structure

Title:

Author list - Primary contacts or presenters should appear as first author (unless otherwise specified)
Author Institutions
Abstracts should be structured with the following headings in bold font:

Background
Objective / Hypothesis
Methods
Results
Conclusions
Disclosure pertinent to this abstract

2. Requirements
a. Maximum of 350-word limit per abstract (not including title or authors or author affiliation)
b. Use Arial 11 font
c. ½ inch margins
d. Up to 2 tables or figures (high resolution)
e. MUST FIT ON ONE PAGE

IMPORTANT:
- Approval of abstract to be coalesced and uploaded to the Neonatal Kidney Collaborative website
  - By submitting the abstract you give approval for the abstract to be uploaded to the NKC website (if approved for presentation)
  - If you DO NOT want the abstract uploaded to the NKC website it is YOUR responsibility to communicate this in the subject of the email AND on the Abstract Page
- Submission of the abstract is the responsibility of the first author who accepts responsibility that
  - Content has been authorized by all authors
  - Agrees that all authors have contributed to the work,
  - Approves the content can be uploaded to the Neonatal Kidney Collaborative Website.
- Any photos or likenesses of patients or individuals must be removed.
- Note on Disclosures: All authors are responsible for recognizing and disclosing any conflict of interest that could be perceived to bias their work, making known all financial support, grants, and any other personal connections.
- It is acceptable to submit this abstract to other scientific meetings (if approved by them)

See page two for example

EXAMPLE OF ABSTRACT FOR INNS

Title:

Authors:

Author Affiliation:

Background:

Objective / Hypothesis:

Methods:

Results:

Conclusions:

Disclosure pertinent to this abstract:

TABLE 1

FIGURE 2