

Children's of Alabama Compliance Corner

The Compliance Website – A Wealth of Compliance Knowledge

How often do you or your staff have compliance-related questions? Do you know that there is a valuable resource you can go to answer many of these type questions?

Two new additions to The Red Wagon include a Corporate Compliance and Internal Audit link (left margin) and a Report Compliance Violation telephone icon (right margin). These two links will provide you quick and ready access to most everything you need to know about compliance.

Important information on the Corporate Compliance and Internal Audit site

- Staff information – put a name with a face and learn how to contact us
- Audit information – know what to expect in an audit, from A to Z
- Compliance Corner Articles – archived articles that contain hot topics
- Code of Conduct – the latest edition of the Code is always available here
- Compliance Program Manual – the details of what Compliance is, and does
- Compliance Meet & Greet – a Town Hall chat with the Compliance staff
- Conflict of Interest – examples of common scenarios and how to manage them
- Compliance Steering Committee – meet the employees who help us develop ideas and carry out the Compliance Program message to COA staff
- Q & A – commonly asked employee questions, and their answers
- Report Violation/Hotline – how to report, what to report, and what to expect

Click on the Report Compliance Violation telephone icon in the right margin of The Red Wagon to

- Submit a Hotline report
 - By calling the toll free number (800.624.9775), or
 - By clicking on the Submit a new report link to complete the online form
- Follow-up on an existing report
 - Check status on your previously filed report to see if we need additional information (you need your Report Number and PIN!)
- Read the COA Code of Conduct

Still have questions?

The Compliance staff is always happy to assist you by phone or email!